

Global Issues Network
European Fall Forum
Water, Water Everywhere
October 2nd and 3rd 2009
American International School of Rotterdam

American International School of Rotterdam

UNESCO-IHE
Institute for Water Education

Rijkswaterstaat
Ministerie van Verkeer en Waterstaat

Friday, October 2nd

- 8:15 - 9:00 Registration
- 9:00-9:15 Introduction/Welcome: Mr. Graham Gamble, Director, American International School of Rotterdam
- 9:15-9:45 Port of Rotterdam Authority: Ms. Judith Vles-Katz, External Relations Office
- 9:45-10:30 UNESCO: Mr Joos de Schutter, Transboundary Water Sharing
(Regional Case Studies)
- 10:30-10:45 Water Break
- 10:45-11:45 Student Presentation(s)/Video(s)
- 11:45 - 12:30 Lunch

- 12:30 - 13:00 Unilever: Ms Marti van Liere 'Pure-it: Clean Water in Developing Countries'
- 13:00 - 14:30 Global Youth Leadership Institute: Mr Jesse Blom, Assistant Director.
"Sharing Water: How to Distribute a Limited Resource?"
- 14:30 - 14:45 Water Break
- 14:45 - 15:30 Student Debate:

Topic: "To ensure sustainable supplies of water, water sources should not be considered public domain; water supplies should be privatized."
- 15:30 Closing Statements Information/Message Dissemination AISR GIN Advisors: Chad Van Cleve/Alison Lipp)
- 6:30 Option dinner in the centre of Rotterdam. Please register and make your payment in advance. EUR 20 per person.
Location: Dudock Restaurant, Meent 88, 3011 JP Rotterdam. Tel: 010-433102

Saturday, October 3rd

- 9:00 Welcome and Instruction for the day (AISR GIN Advisors: Chad Van Cleve/Alison Lipp)
- 9:05-11:05 Interactive Workshops
Rijkswaterstaat Waterdienst: 'Past, Present and Future Water Management in the Netherlands' Ruud Staverman
Unilever: 'Water and the Laundry Process' Harriet Hommes and Jan Boers
- 11:05-11:20 Water Break
- 11:20-12:00 Action Planning Time for Individual Schools
- 12:00-12:15 Individual School Report on Action Plans to full group
- 12:15 Closing Conference Statements
- 12:20 - 12:30 Packed Lunches Distributed
- 12:30 End of Conference